Drum Making Workshop

Drumming has been a central feature across many cultures throughout the history of humanity. In this workshop the focus will be on Traditional North American Aboriginal drumming and the role it plays in rituals and ceremonies. You will craft your own wild whitetail deerskin drum stretched over a 14-inch Canadian Spruce Wood frame. Workshop will also include an intimate storytelling/aboriginal musical-performance with David Finkle and Laura Leonard.

Date:

Sunday October 14th, 2018 (rain or shine)

Time: 9 - 11:30am

Location:

1551 Bark Lake Drive, Irondale ON

Cost:

$120.00 + HST

*Price includes FREE Entrance to the 2nd Annual Autumn Social & a BBQ lunch

Preregistration is necessary for this workshop
